Case No. CIV-18-234-W

ORDER REQUIRING SERVICE AND SPECIAL REPORT

Plaintiff David B. Mitchell, a state prisoner appearing pro se, has filed this action claiming violations of his federal civil rights. The Court has conducted a preliminary review of the Complaint (Doc. No. 1) and finds that an investigation and special report are necessary to develop a record sufficient to ascertain whether there are any factual or legal bases for Plaintiff's claims. See Hall v. Bellmon, 935 F.2d 1106, 1109 (10th Cir. 1991). In compliance with the guidelines set forth in Martinez v. Aaron, 570 F.2d 317 (10th Cir. 1978), IT IS THE ORDER OF THIS COURT that:

(1) Plaintiff shall cause a copy of this Order and of the Complaint, along with a summons issued by the Court Clerk, to be served on each Defendant named in the Complaint. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(c)(1). Service shall be accomplished as follows:

- (a) The Court Clerk is directed to mail to Plaintiff the necessary forms for requesting the issuance of summonses along with this Order.<sup>1</sup> See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(b). Plaintiff must complete these forms and return them to the Court Clerk within 21 days of the date of this Order.
- (b) Upon receipt of properly completed forms, the Court Clerk will issue summonses and mail them to Plaintiff. Plaintiff is responsible for ensuring that service of process is accomplished upon each Defendant in accordance with Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

- (c) Each Defendant must be served within ninety (90) days from the date of this Order. Unless service is waived, Plaintiff must ensure that a proof of service is filed for each Defendant on or before the expiration of this 90-day time period. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(c), (d), (l), (m). The failure to file timely proofs of service as to any Defendant may result in the dismissal of the claims against that Defendant. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m).
- (2) Officials responsible for the operation of North Fork Correctional Center in Sayre, Oklahoma, shall undertake a review of the subject matter of the Complaint:
- (a) to ascertain the facts and circumstances, including the outcome of administrative relief sought by Plaintiff;
  - (b) to consider whether any action can and should be taken by the institution or appropriate officials to resolve the subject matter of the Complaint; and
  - (c) to determine whether prior related complaints, either in this Court or elsewhere, should be considered together with this Complaint.
- (3) Following completion of the review, a written special report setting forth the findings shall be compiled. The special report shall restate in separate paragraphs the allegations of the Complaint followed by the pertinent information developed by the review. If appropriate, medical and psychiatric records shall be included in the special report. Likewise, any rules and regulations applicable to the claims and time frame of the Complaint shall be included as part of the special report.
- (4) The special report shall be filed no later than sixty (60) days from the date on which the first Defendant is served. If a Defendant waives service, the date on which the waiver form is sent shall be considered the date of service. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d)(4).
- (5) Further, in accordance with 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(g)(2) and Local Civil Rule 9.2(c), the Court orders each Defendant to file an answer or a dispositive motion within sixty (60) days of service.
- (6) If a motion to dismiss or other dispositive motion is filed, Plaintiff must file a response within twenty-one (21) days from the date the motion was filed. See

LCvR 7.1(g). Failure to respond to the motion within that time period may result in the motion being deemed confessed. Id.

(7) Unless otherwise ordered, any party shall have seven (7) days to respond to a request for an extension of time.

(8) No discovery shall be served upon any party until the special report has been filed, except as the Court may otherwise order.<sup>2</sup>

The Court Clerk is directed to mail Plaintiff the necessary forms for requesting issuance of summonses along with a copy of this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 7th day of August, 2018.

<sup>2</sup> Defendants are advised that a dispositive motion based on the affirmative defense of failure to exhaust administrative remedies is typically considered a motion for summary judgment, governed by the procedural rules applicable to such motions. If appropriate, however, Defendant(s) may seek leave from the Court to file an initial motion for summary judgment based solely upon this affirmative defense and to have the parties' discovery initially limited to the nonexhaustion issue. If disposition of such an initial motion is not dispositive of the entire case, the Court may grant leave for Defendant(s) to file a second motion for summary judgment. See LCvR 56.1(a).
